

SEHEME

September 2024

This is the last leaflet as we are moving towards the end of the project. Two years of SeHeMe's implementation will be completed end of October 2024.

Since our last leaflet, which was launched in February 2024, SeHeMe's online progress meetings kept taking place every month. The Foreign Language for Media Literacy e-course has been completed and tested by all partners both internally and externally. A very useful short tutorial video has been developed to help users register easily and navigate without problems in the e-course. Click here to watch it!

The “Home & Away” online magazine has also been finalised and evaluated both internally and externally. Apart from English, it is available in Portuguese, in Spanish, in Greek and in Arabic and so does the Foreign Language for Media Literacy e-course. Choose the language you prefer and browse the “Home & Away” online magazine from here.

The partner from Tunisia, PADIL, will be the host and apart from the training programme, they are also planning to have interesting cultural activities and visits to important sightseeing around Tunis, the capital of Tunisia.

Right after the training, partners will have the final meeting in Tunis on the 3rd and the 4th of October 2024. Two representatives per partner organisation will be there to attend it.
